Instructor Joe DeRoche smiles his approval of the craftsmanship of two Voc-Tech volunteers, Manny Rego, left, and Dave Michalski. Students from G.N.B. Regional Vocational Technical High School have contributed their expertise to the refurbishing of the Tripp School in Fairhaven, which will reopen early in 1985 as the home of the Over-22 program for retarded young adults. Electrical work is in the capable hands of a team of students from Old Colony Voke.
