

School Committee Approves Tripp School Plan

By Aimee Marx

The use of the Tripp School by the Nemasket Group was approved last Wednesday by the Fairhaven School Committee for a one year renewable lease.

The committee voted unanimously, with some minor concern about insurance liability associated with the development of the program. The Nemasket Group will provide services to selected handicapped adults over the age of 22.